

MY LIFE, MY DECISIONS:

A SUPPORTED DECISION-MAKING SUMMIT

MEET THE SUMMIT PANEL

Jessica Davenport is the Community and Advocate liaison in the Division of Developmental Disabilities Services. She loves watching movies and shows, being outdoors, cooking, and doing anything outrageous to get her adrenaline going.

Alyssa Cowin is an Operations Support Specialist in the Delaware Department of Health and Social Services in the Office of Cabinet Secretary Manning. She enjoys sewing, craft shows, and volunteer opportunities.

Arte Mays serves on the Statewide Independent Living Council, the Developmental Disabilities Council, and the Vocational Rehabilitation Advisory Council. In his free time, he likes watching TV, going out with friends, and spending time with family.

Laurel McGarry is a second-year student in the University of Delaware's Career and Life Studies Certificate program and a part-time employee at Homegrown. Her favorite pastimes are art, listening to music, playing the piano, watching Korean dramas, and shopping.

James Volk is an undergraduate student at Wilmington University where he is studying accounting. James works as a pizza cook and enjoys long-distance running.

